

Legal Aid NSW Aboriginal Field Officers can help with:

- accessing Legal Aid NSW services
- referring clients to Legal Aid NSW specialist services
- making external referrals to support services
- community engagement and legal education
- providing legal information
- booking appointments with lawyers
- support at court, including the Youth Koori Court, and at appointments with lawyers
- welfare checks on clients in custody
- understanding and changing bail conditions
- work and development orders
- applying for birth certificates
- fines you aren't able to pay
- completing Legal Aid NSW forms, and
- law check-ups to identify legal issues.

Cammy Skuthorpe

Aboriginal Field Officer
Legal Aid NSW Dubbo Office
Wiradjuri Country

 Text or call (02) 6885 4233 or 0459 108 820

 cammy.skuthorpe@legalaid.nsw.gov.au

 I cover Dubbo, Warren, Narromine, Trangie, Gilgandra and Wellington

